The king-size bed boasts a barrel vaulted wooden canopy. The living room has an adjoining artist's studio complete with easel and canvas on which guests can test their artistic talents.

CHARTER OAK COTTAGE

This spacious retreat is situated in the Farmyard, where three clustered cottages make it an ideal stay for couples traveling together. CT YANKEE COTTAGE

Based on Mark Twain's book Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court, this medieval cottage is rich with warm colors, a herringbone fireplace, exposed beams and a bed fit for King Arthur. A 1968 fully restored Sikorsky HH37 Sea King Pelican helicopter dominates this cottage. The helicopter's interior houses the bar and entertainment center. Imagine you have landed and your hanger site is of contemporary décor and absolute luxury.

INDUSTRY COTTAGE

In tribute to Connecticut's steel industry, this cottage is a modern take on the mills and forges of Old New England. Its sleek design and simple lines are a modern take on local history.

A special feature in this cottage is a dual-sided fireplace, opening onto the tub area on one side and yet pleasing to guests in the living area on the other.

LIBRARY COTTAGE

Inspired by the libraries of yesteryear, this cottage is dominated by books on double-story shelves. MUSIC COTTAGE

Of very modern design, this cottage is a celebration of all things musical. Strong colors and bold design are the forum found in Music. Come “play” the cottage inside and out.

SECRET SOCIETY COTTAGE

The setting of the Stone Cottage is such that one would imagine it was always there, anchoring the edge of Winvian's meadow to the north. The half-moon screened-in porch provides yet another hideaway.

THE TREEHOUSE

Ten meters off the ground, suspended amongst the trees, this commanding two-story cottage features an open plan bedroom and bathroom on one level, complete with three-way fireplace. One story higher, a large living area with a second fireplace can be found. This cottage is not for the feint of heart. Sway with the breeze and touch the leaves.
